

THE BRAIN

- Tingling or numbness in face, arms, legs, & fingers
- Cognitive changes such as memory loss or shortened attention span
- Unexplained weakness or fatigue
- Dizziness
- Depression
- Tremors
- Difficulty swallowing
- Difficulty with tasks requiring coordination
- Loss of muscle coordination
- Difficulty walking
- Balance problems

MUSCULAR

- Pain & muscle stiffness
- Muscle spasms
- Disturbances

VISUAL DISTURBANCES

- Vision loss
- Double vision (Diplopia)
- Blurred vision, eye pain or blindness
- Involuntary eye movement

SPEECH

- Muscles in face & mouth may grow weak affecting speech
- Difficulty with word expression
- Slurred speech

SYMPTOMS

Multiple Sclerosis is a disease with neurological, diverse and random symptoms that may vary in intensity and location.

EXCRETORY

- Dysfunctional bladder
- Sexual dysfunction
- Dysfunctional bowel